

Financing Your Education – Useful Websites

1. Check St. Mary's website regularly for scholarship updates:

<http://stmary.wcdsb.ca/>

2. StudentAwards is a free searchable Canadian scholarship database:

<http://www.studentawards.com>

3. Scholarshipscanada is a free searchable database. Users must register before conducting a search:

<http://scholarshipscanada.com>

4. The Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada provides information on scholarships, internships, and exchanges.

<https://juno.aucc.ca/wes/hes.aspx?pg=834>

5. They have also compiled a list of companies that offer assistance to dependents of employees.

<https://juno.aucc.ca/wes/hes.aspx?pg=976>

6. Electronicinfo.ca provides information for all Ontario Universities. This includes programs, pre-requisites, scholarships, and residences.

<http://www.electronicinfo.ca>

7. Ontariocolleges.ca provides information for all Ontario Colleges. This website also includes a section called “Money Matters” that provides links to tuition costs, budgeting advice, financial assistance, bursaries and grants, scholarships and awards.

<http://www.ontariocolleges.ca/portal/page/portal/ONTCOL/Confirm/FinancialIssues>

8. The Government of Canada has a couple useful websites that include information on financing an education.

<http://www.canlearn.ca/eng/index.shtml>

<http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/audiences/youth/index.shtml>

9. The Ontario School Counsellor Association (OSCA) provides a useful webpage that includes links to various scholarships and financial assistance.

<http://www.osca.ca/onwinlinks/index.cfm?fuseaction=Links&Category=41&PageID=1093&PageCategory=92>

Student Loans:

1. Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP):

<http://osap.gov.on.ca>

2. Make an appointment with your bank to discuss a student line of credit.