The History of St. Mary's High School

Kitchener, Ontario

St. Mary's High School (SMHS) has undergone many changes throughout its history. Not only has the focus and purpose of the school evolved over time but so has its physical structures.

The evolution of the school has been traced below but this is not a complete chronology. The full history of the school lives on in the memories and legacies of former students and its spirit and traditions continue in the students of St. Mary's today. We honour the sacrifices and the dedication of the School Sisters of Notre Dame, the founders of St. Mary's High School.

SCHOOL CREST

The St. Mary's HS crest contains the motto – "Virtus et Scientia" – virtue and knowledge. It succinctly expresses the aim of the school – to impart profound truths in both the religious and secular subjects so that its graduates may go forth as valiant young people, strong in character, virtue, and learning.

Timeline:

The name "St. Mary's" has a long history in downtown Berlin, Ontario (renamed Kitchener in 1916) with St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church (old 1856, new 1903), St. Mary's Convent (1885) and St. Mary's Elementary School (1859) taking up one block of Young Street's east side between Weber and Duke Streets.

On the west side of Young Street, the Fathers of the Congregation of the Resurrection at St. Jerome's High School had been educating boys since 1867 but there was no counterpart for girls.

1907 – Sister Lioba of the School Sisters of Notre Dame (SSND) established St Anne's Training School (also referred to as St. Anne's Convent School) for girls interested in becoming SSND and eager to obtain a Catholic high school education. Enrolment = 9. Classes were held at the newly acquired "White House" (formerly the Erb family home) at the south-west corner of Weber and Ontario Streets. It would later house the first school library.

1908 – The Pierce Terrace (the "Red House", later referred to as the Choir Studio) on Ontario Street (half a block south of the White House) was acquired to accommodate increased enrolment.

1910 - First graduating class prepared for Teacher's College.

1925 – A new uniform consisted of a navy skirt, middie, and black stockings.

1927 – Girls from St. Anne's transferred to Waterdown to attend the new Notre Dame Academy (part of the SSND Motherhouse). 84 St. Anne's aspirants became SSNDs during 1907-1927.

1928 – St. Mary's Elementary School (Weber and Young Streets) extended education to grades 9 and 10 to maintain a high school option in Kitchener for Catholic girls. Classes were also taught at Sacred Heart school on Moore Avenue in Kitchener and St. Louis school in Waterloo on Allan Street.

1930 – The school became officially known as St. Mary's High School (SMHS) when St. Mary's Church offered its Parish Hall and gym along Ontario Street (between the White House and Red House) for grades 9 to 12. Four new classrooms were built on top of the hall and gym, and a third floor was added to the White House. Grades 9 and 10 were funded by the government, while grades 11 and 12 paid tuition. Enrolment = 45 girls.
